Cuba Reported to Be on the Verge of a Revolution.

The People Called Upon to Rise Up Against the Government.

The Governor General Authorized to Declare Martial Law—Muscato Partly Taken by Rebels—Venezuela in a Disturbed Condition—Slaughtered.

HAVANA, Feb. 26.—The apprehensions of a revolt are increasing. The governor general has put in effect the public order law throughout the island. This law provides for the immediate punishment of anybody taken in a seditious act. Some twenty-four men have defied the authorities and called for rebel recruits at Yarra, near Matanzas, and trouble is reported also from Guantanamo.

MADRID, Feb. 26.—A special cabinet meeting was held Monday evening to consider Cuban affairs. The minister of colonies, Senor Abaza, announced that he had authorized the governor general of Cuba to proclaim martial law, so as to check the brigandage which the Cuban secessionists, prompted by Cuban refugees in America and by agitators on the island, were carrying on for political purposes.

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—The steamer Caracas, from Porto Cabello, February 16, which arrived here Monday, brings the news that political affairs are very unsettled in Venezuela. A feast was given at Porto Cabello shortly before the Caracas left, to which President Crespo was invited, but failed to put in an appearance. The people of Porto Cabello are much incensed at the slight, and a revolution is predicted within sixty days. No further particulars could be obtained.

LONDON, Feb. 26.—A dispatch to the Times from Bombay says that the insurgent Bedouins, under command of Shiek Sydaule, have captured the greater portion of the city of Muscat. The sultan fled from the palace, but succeeded in holding two forts and later was successful in retaking possession of the eastern portion of the city. The British residents in the town were removed in safety. The result of the fighting is still uncertain.

The report of the fighting between the British naval forces and the natives at Brass, Guinea, on the west coast of Africa, just received by the admiralty, says: After three days' fighting the engagement ended in the capture of the native town by assault. Lieut. Taylor and two seamen were killed and several others were wounded. Many of the war canoes of the natives were sunk.

ROME, Feb. 26.—A dispatch received from Massawa Monday evening says that King Menelek's expedition to South Abyssinia killed 7,000 tribesmen.

THE LAW UPHELD.

Judge Pugh Decides That the Exile Tax Can Be Collected.

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 26.—Judge David F. Pugh, of the Franklin common pleas court, has sustained the exile tax law. Suits were brought by Atty.-Gen. Richards against the Adams, United States and National express companies. The defense was that the companies were not corporations within the meaning of the law, but are joint stock companies organized under the laws of New York. Judge Pugh holds that these companies have substantially all the attributes, powers, privileges and rights of corporations, and are, therefore, amenable to the law. He characterized the companies as a cross between a partnership and a corporation, but cited the fact that in certain states they are held to be corporations for the purpose of taxation, and referred to a distinction, as where the stockholders are liable only to the extent of their stock.

A Terrible Accident.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 26.—Mrs. Nannie Mendenhall, of Ryland's Station, Ky., twelve miles out on the Kentucky Central railroad, met with a tragic death Monday morning. Her husband, John, took down a rifle belonging to her brother, and laid it on a chair. Mrs. Mendenhall, in passing the chair, brushed against the weapon and, as it started to fall, she grasped it. In some manner the trigger caught and the cartridge was discharged, the ball passing through her head, killing her instantly.

Sewing Machine Trust.

CLEVELAND, O., Feb. 26.—It is stated on good authority that three of the most prominent sewing machine companies have already entered into the proposed sewing machine combination and are now prepared to buy out absolutely the plant of the fourth company. It is understood that the Singer, Domestic and Davis are the companies which have already joined issues, and are now negotiating to buy out the White company of this city for $1,200,000 in cash.

He Slept on the Track.

LIMA, O., Feb. 26.—Clinton Pearson, a young man aged about twenty-nine years, became intoxicated and sat down on the tracks of the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne & Chicago road. He went to sleep and was struck by a west-bound passenger train and horribly mangled. Both legs were amputated and he only lived a few hours.

Killed by the Cars.

WARREN, O., Feb. 26.—John Temple, a well known plumber of this city, met a horrible death Monday morning. His body, mangled almost beyond recognition, was found on the railroad about 6 o'clock. Temple came here from Youngstown several years ago and was unmarried.

The Shot Machines Must Go.

PORTLAND, Ind., Feb. 26.—Mayor Bergman has issued an order to the police that shot machines of every kind must go, else their owners will be prosecuted.

THE BOND SALE.

Much Disappointment Is Expressed by the Bidders.

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—A good deal of disappointment was expressed Monday by unsuccessful bidders for the new bonds when they were allotted. Speculators, or those suspected of an intention to speculate in their purchases, were not given any bonds. Over 400 notices were sent to bidders politely declining their offers.

It is understood that, after placing fully a third of $31,000,000 bonds offered here where they would do the most good in holding the foreign exchange market in check, the remainder were apportioned equally between national bank applicants, savings banks and similar non-speculative investors and dealers of the first grade.

It is currently reported that the leading house in the government bond market, Messrs. Harvey, Fisk & Sons, made a bid for the entire amount of bonds offered in this country, and were awarded about $4,000,000, or 12 per cent. of their subscription.

This firm was the selling agent of the previous syndicate, and so far as known it turned into the subtreasury for account of the present syndicate a larger amount of gold than any other firm or institution. These facts, together with the magnitude of the firm's bid, would account for its receiving a large proportion of the bonds.

On the stock exchange the new bonds are quoted at 110 1/2.

IDENTIFIED.

Numerous Witnesses Declare Morganfield To Be the Train Robber.

STAFFORD, C. H., Va., Feb. 26.—The case of the commonwealth vs. Morganfield is practically closed, for at an early hour after adjournment the prosecution announced that the commonwealth would rest its case.

The identification of Morganfield proceeded Monday morning. He was fully recognized by C. B. Brown, who sold him and Searcy their tickets at Shenandoah Junction; by Officer Wright, of Cumberland; by Conductor Peters, who took up his ticket, and who identified the ticket which was sold to Searcy as the one he (Peters) got from Morganfield the night of October 16 on his way to Cincinnati. Mr. McDermott and Mr. Witte, of the Cincinnati police force, identified the telescope as Morganfield's.

The defense expected to introduce four witnesses Tuesday, and then, when the instructions have been settled on, the case will be argued.

RELIGION BY LAW.

Extraordinary Action a Member of the Reichstag Will Take.

BERLIN, Feb. 26.—During the session of the reichstag committee considering the anti-revolution bill Monday Dr. Rintelen, clerical, gave notice of his intention to submit an amendment imposing a fine of 600 marks and imprisonment for two years upon any person who in a public speech or in writing denies the deity or immortality of the soul, or who shall in any manner make an attack upon the religious character of the marriage relation.

The Cologne Gazette characterizes the proposed amendment as an outrage upon human liberty which will make Germany the laughing stock of nations. The clericals, the Gazette says, will next propose a law to enforce the doctrine of papal infallibility and immaculate conception.

A Horrible Murder.

CHICAGO, Feb. 26.—Evidence of what the police think is a frightful murder mystery were found Monday when two children discovered the mutilated body of a man in a lonely locality at Ninety-third street and Western avenue. The body, which was that of a man about 25 years old, was found in a sitting posture, leaning against a tree. The hands, legs and lower part of the body were badly burned, deep gashes were found in the head and about the waist were the remnants of a charred and singed rope. The theory is that the man was murdered and an attempt made to conceal the crime by fire. The body is supposed to be that of Fred Holzner, a butcher of this city.

Earthquake Shocks.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 26.—A distinct shock of earthquake was felt in the suburban town of Kirkwood, fifteen miles west of here, at 5 o'clock Monday morning. A number of families were awakened by the vibration, which was of sufficient force to shake windows and rattle crockery. Hundreds of posts were loosened in the ground.

TACOMA, Wash., Feb. 26.—Two light shocks of earthquake were felt here and at Sumner, twelve miles distant, at 5 o'clock Monday morning.

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 26.—Three shocks of earthquake were experienced in this city between 4:30 and 5 o'clock Monday morning.

Thrown From a Buggy and Killed.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Feb. 26.—Miss Slaughter, a young lady teacher at Ward's seminary, was thrown from a buggy and almost instantly killed here Monday afternoon. Her companion, Miss Hopkins, another teacher, sustained several broken bones, though it is thought she will recover. Miss Slaughter's home was at Winchester.

An Engine Chained to the Track.

WABASH, Ind., Feb. 26.—Big Four switch engine No. 34 was found leaved upon by Tax Collector Silvers, at St. Joseph, and is now chained to the side track. The tax collector stole a march on the switching crew, and while the engine was standing still ran a log chain through the drivers and under the rail.

Died of Hydrophobia.

TRENTON, N. J., Feb. 26.—Mrs. Josephine Light, colored, aged 22 years, who was bitten by a dog last December, and who was taken with convulsions a few days ago, died Monday of hydrophobia. When the woman was bitten she had the wounds cauterized and no evil effect was felt until early last week.

THE FUNERAL.

A Great Gathering of the Colored Race at Washington

To Pay Tribute to Frederick Douglass Their Benefactor.

Senators Sherman and Hoar, Justice Harlan, Susan B. Anthony, May Wright Sewall and Other Women Leaders Attended—The Services Were Simple.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—Not since the unveiling of the Lincoln emancipation statue in 1878 has there been such an outpouring of the colored citizens to pay tribute to a benefactor of their race as was witnessed Monday in and about the Metropolitan African Methodist Episcopal church, where funeral services over the remains of Frederick Douglass took place. The body was taken from Cedar Hill, near Anacostia, the home of the deceased, at 8:30 o'clock Monday morning and reached the church about 9:30. From that hour till 1:30 Monday afternoon thousands of persons, including many white people, passed in single file through the building and viewed the remains, which were in charge of a guard of honor composed of members of colored camp of the sons of veterans.

When the casket was closed at 1:30 o'clock, and further admittance to the general public was refused, several thousand persons were assembled about the church, and the throng was made greater by the many who were filling out after viewing the body.

Shortly after 2 o'clock the funeral procession entered the church, headed by Rev. J. G. Jenifer, the pastor, reading the ritual.

In the procession were Mrs. Douglass and the family of the deceased, and many intimate friends, including a number of whites, Senators Sherman and Hoar, Justice Harlan, Miss Susan B. Anthony, Mrs. May Wright Sewall (president of the Women's National council), Rev. Anna H. Shaw, Mrs. Rachel Avery Foster and a number of those in attendance on the Women's council. The honorary pallbearers, who also formed part of the procession, were Hon. B. K. Bruce, W. H. A. Wormley, Hon. John T. Lynch, John F. Cook, E. C. Messer, Hon. P. B. S. Pinchback, C. E. Purvis, L. C. Bailey, J. H. Brooks, J. H. Merriweather, John B. Francis, F. J. Harbodo, D. L. Pitcher, B. E. Messer and Hon. Geo. W. Murray. Mrs. Sewall, Miss Anthony and Mrs. Shaw were given seats on the platform.

The services were simple, but appropriate. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. J. G. Jenifer, pastor of the church. He took for his text: "Know ye not that there is a Prince and a great man fallen this day in Israel?"

Rev. H. E. Stevenson, pastor of the white church in Anacostia, attended by Mrs. Douglass, followed with a brief address at the request of members of the family. Rev. J. H. Rankin, president of Howard university, also delivered a brief eulogy of the deceased.

A letter from Mrs. Douglass asking that a place be given in the programme to Mr. John Hutchinson, of Boston, Mass., was read, and served as an introduction to Mr. Hutchinson, white-haired and white-bearded, the last of the famous Hutchinson family of abolition singers, who with his sister accompanied Mr. Douglass to England on his mission against slavery. Mr. Hutchinson told some touching little stories of his life-long friendship with the deceased, and then sang two requiem solos.

Mrs. Douglass and the children and other relatives of her husband filed out of the church and remained in a room below until the congregation had departed. Then the remains were borne to the hearse by eight colored letter carriers, and after the family, friends and others had entered the carriages waiting for them, the funeral procession moved to the Pennsylvania railroad station, where the casket was placed on board the funeral train.

Collector Kearns Removed.

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 26.—Edward P. Kearns, internal revenue collector at Pittsburgh, was Monday removed from office by President Cleveland, Edmund A. Higler being appointed to the place. Collector Kearns is 73 years old. He claims he was made the victim of a conspiracy in his own office, and that local democratic leaders caused his ruin by their treachery. The charges against Kearns may be summarized as levying campaign assessments upon his employees and accepting presents from wholesale liquor and tobacco dealers.

Board of State Soldiers' Home.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Feb. 26.—Gov. Matthews Monday appointed the board for the State Soldiers' home, an appropriation for which was passed by the present session of the legislature. They are James R. Carnahan, of Indianapolis; Col. D. N. Foster, of Ft. Wayne; Jas. B. Wallace, of Lafayette; Christopher J. Murphy, of Evansville; and Isiah B. McDonald, of Columbia City. Three of them are republicans and two democrats. They are the persons recommended for appointment by the G. A. R.

Insulting the Dead.

RICHMOND, Va., Feb. 26.—A card bearing the name of a traveling salesman for a New York gas supply company was found on Jefferson Davis' grave, in Hollywood, Tuesday, bearing the following inscription: "Here lies a man of whom we've read. His body is here, but his memory is Dead. Respectfully dedicated to the memory of Jefferson Davis by three Yankees."

A Murderer Confesses.

WELCH, W. Va., Feb. 26.—At Switchback, this county, on January 3 Sam Hairston shot and killed Abner Stevens and made his escape. Both are colored. Hairston was recently arrested in Mingo county by Deputy Sheriff Johnson and lodged in jail here Sunday. He has made a confession.

The Monk!

By MATTHEW G. LEWIS,

(MONK LEWIS.)

Mr. Lewis was a member of the British Parliament, and his book became so popular in England a hundred years ago that it gained for him the title of "Monk Lewis."

It is a fine piece of classic composition, and after being out of print for many years it has been republished from the original text.

It is far superior to "Monsieur Monks" and books of that character.
